Dear Liz;

On behalf of Roadhouse & Rose Funeral Home, I would like to thank you and your team at High Tech Communications on the spectacular job you did in implementing our new telephone system.

Throughout the entire process – development to implementation to follow-up and aftercare, you and your team were professional, caring and always there to support us.

We are extremely happy with our new phone system, its professionalism and technologically advanced features assist us on an every-day-basis and make our internal and external communications state-of-the art within the industry.

I would not hesitate to recommend High Tech Communications to any firm looking for a professional yet affordable telephone system with all the latest technology and a friendly and helpful support group to assist them.

Best Regards,

Wes Playter
President
